

Facilitating Hope, Healing and Fulfillment

McCall is the Administrative Assistant at Renew Relationship Counseling. McCall is pursuing a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science through Utah Valley University. Following her graduation, McCall hopes to pursue a Doctorate of Physical Therapy.

McCall found her passion in physical therapy through years of experience in sports medicine. McCall has spent countless hours volunteering with athletic trainers to assist athletes with injury recovery and rehabilitation. She has enjoyed helping athletes achieve their goals, not only physically, but also mentally. This training and experience played a big role in her desire to work at Renew. Like physical therapy, McCall believes having a secure and safe environment is vital to the healing process, and she enjoys contributing to that safe environment here at Renew where McCall's past training and experiences allow her to utilize her time, skills, and empathy to help others.

Prior to her work at Renew, McCall has held numerous positions working as a manager and as an administrative assistant. She brings experience in organization, attention to detail, effective communication, and critical interpersonal skills. At Renew Relationship Counseling, McCall plays a vital role in our customer care and support. Among many other roles, McCall facilitates client education, helps orient new clients to our services, and assists with other client services and case management. McCall also oversees scheduling and information flow and is at the forefront of our digital marketing campaigns, company branding development, public relations efforts, and social media projects. McCall is intelligent, confident, positive, and driven. Her demeanor is warm, optimistic, and supportive. McCall is a great asset to Renew Relationship Counseling, and we are very grateful to have her!

Outside of work and pursuing her education, McCall enjoys spending time with her husband. She and her husband enjoy going on walks, strength training, and being outdoors.
