

Facilitating Hope, Healing and Fulfillment

Alivia is an Administrative Assistant at Renew Relationship Counselling. She graduated from Utah Valley University with an Associate of Science degree and is currently advancing her education toward a medical career. Her role at Renew provides valuable healthcare support experience that strengthens her foundation for future success.

At Renew, Alivia serves as the welcoming first point of contact for clients. She also manages scheduling, information flow, and customer support, ensuring every interaction reflects Renew's commitment to healing and growth. Driven by her passion for helping others, Alivia finds deep fulfillment in creating welcoming, supportive experiences for every client. Whether coordinating appointments, answering questions, or simply offering reassurance over the phone, Alivia is dedicated to making a positive impact.

Outside work, Alivia expresses her creativity through ceramics – a passion that serves as both an artistic outlet and personal joy. She loves the outdoors and treasures time spent camping with family, reading under the trees, or listening to music in the fresh air.

What People Are Saying:

"Your office is well organized, friendly, and therapeutically effective. I simply cannot rave enough about your services! We feel so welcome and comfortable and supported."
